

AMERICAN ENGLISH LANGUAGE PROGRAMS (AELP)

INFORMATION and INSTRUCTIONS PLEASE READ CAREFULLY BEFORE FILLING OUT THE APPLICATION

The American English Language Program (AELP) at Northern Kentucky University offers English language classes in an Intensive Program, a Semi-Intensive Program or pre-arranged programs for groups.

For students who have not taken the TOEFL, IELTS exam or do not otherwise meet minimum English proficiency requirements, NKU offers the option to be conditionally admitted to the university after completing level VI of the Intensive English Program. Students enrolled in the advanced level of the Intensive English Program may be eligible for concurrent enrollment in both Intensive English classes and degree seeking courses. Students who successfully complete level VI of the Intensive English Program may be given special permission to enroll in a credit-bearing class along with the Intensive English coursework.

AELP offers rolling admission with sessions beginning every eight. Students must be at least 18 years and older to enroll.

To apply for conditional admissions (as only an AELP student) to a degree seeking program please visit:
<http://aelp.nku.edu>.

To apply for the Intensive or Semi Intensive English Program please complete the following requirements:

1. Application to American English Language Programs
2. Application fee* of $50.00 (USD) payable to NKU by check, money order, Visa, or MasterCard.
3. Sponsor's original bank statement (only for students who are requesting a student visa).
4. Financial Statement from sponsor form (only for students who are requesting a student visa) which can be found at http://aelp.nku.edu/docs/finance_cert.pdf.

* Application fee is not refundable and subject to change without notice.

See attachment for methods of payment instructions.

Admission to American English Language Programs is separate from admission to Northern Kentucky University. However, international students are permitted to purchase housing and meals on campus and participate in the same extracurricular activities afforded to all NKU students. See our website for details on housing and other information <http://aelp.nku.edu/>.

In general, if you are entering the US for the first time in F-1 or J-1 status, you must pay the SEVIS fee. Please visit www.fmjfee.com to learn more about the SEVIS fee (in the amount of $200), who needs to pay it, and payment options. This fee is in addition to and separate from the visa application fee paid to the US Embassy or Consulate. It must be paid before your application for visa interview is granted.

F-1 Student Transfers: If you are currently in the United States in F-1 or J-1 student visa status and enrolled at another Intensive English Program, you must complete an NKU Transfer Form. This form must be completed by your CURRENT program advisor who will grant permission to release your SEVIS record to Northern Kentucky University. We cannot issue a new I-20 without your record being received by NKU from your previous institution. This form can be found at http://oiss.nku.edu/docs/INTERNATIONAL_ADVISOR.pdf.
